

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 7 March 2019

Trackmobile® Honors Distributor Network
Recognizing Excellence in Customer Service and Support

LaGrange, Georgia: March 7, 2019 – Trackmobile announced the 2018 recipients of their Distributor Awards, which acknowledges distributor leadership and overall excellence within the railcar mover industry. Wiese Equipment, Amexder S.A. de C.V., Fast Track de México, Address Engineering Associates and Papé Material Handling are each being recognized for their dedication to excellence in the categories of professionalism, management, leadership, customer service and support and continuing to guide their customers to the highest level of performance in railway material handling.

"It gives me great pleasure to recognize these partners who continue to demonstrate superior performance and drive value for our customers. They demonstrate superior leadership and innovation to help Trackmobile customers solve their railcar movement requirements," said Ralph Przybyszewski, Trackmobile President. "It's an honor to present these awards in recognition of our distributors' outstanding achievements in helping customers respond to their business challenges."

These Awards of Excellence include Distributor of the Year; Market Leader; President's Award; and the Trackmobile Parts Champion. With the addition of the Zephyr Electric Railcar Mover product line in 2018, Trackmobile has created a new award to honor the top Zephyr Distributor and their contributions toward promoting this product line.

It is with a great deal of pride that Trackmobile announces this year's award recipients' below:

- Distributor of the Year: Wiese Equipment
- President's Award: Amexder S.A. de C.V.
- Market Leader: Fast Track de México
- Trackmobile Parts Champion: Address Engineering Associates
- Zephyr Distributor of the Year: Papé Material Handling

Trackmobile is represented around the world through our Global Distributor partners. Each Sales Specialist and Service Expert in our network is dedicated to guiding their customers to their best solution in railcar movement, educating customers about proper equipment operation to ensure railyard safety, and providing best-in-class customer service throughout the year.

Since our very first sale in 1948, Trackmobile has been dedicated to working with the best distributor partners in the business. Working together today, we have the strongest, most responsive Distributor network in the industry, offering customer's unmatched expertise, service, and support. "While all of our Distributors play a critical role in our collective success, this year's award recipients have shown to be the best-performing distributors leaders from 2018 that will continue our success into 2019," stated Mr. Przybyszewski.
